

Roseate Glory

Reminiscent of floral garlands, this collection of elegant neckpieces by A'Star Jewellery evokes your senses with the exquisite craftsmanship of floral motifs. Coloured rhodium finish accentuates the ruby and sapphire flowers perched high on twisting diamond encrusted strands. Pearl drops add opulence to the delicate yet tantalising adornment. A perfect fit for the innate radiant beauty of today's self-assured woman.

Opulent Jewels

One is bound to feel like royalty after donning this pair of bangles from Ahinsa Jewellery's collection titled 'Rajwadi Kada'. Using 105.5 grams of pure gold, 6.27 carats of uncut diamonds and decorated with exquisite meenakari on its reverse, Mumbai-based Ahinsa has created jewellery that is truly regal. The necklace set studded with emeralds and polki from the Nawabi Collection is crafted from 136 grams of pure gold framed with 39.55 carats of uncut diamonds and 197.25 carats of emeralds. Perfectly matched pearls lend a contrast to the emerald drops and provide a soft sheen to the set.
