

JEWELS OF ANTIQUITY

Asian Star hosted its annual bespoke jewellery extravaganza Rendezvous Luxe at the Trident in South Mumbai. The one-day exhibition showcased an eclectic line-up of jewels that recreated the timeless glory of treasures once owned by legendary jewellery connoisseurs. Set with a profusion of precious gemstones in various styles, forms and settings, each piece portrayed the signature style of the celebrity who owned the original jewelled inspiration. Featured here are some of the handcrafted masterpieces that were on display for Mumbai's elite.

CELEBRATING A LEGACY

Ghanasingh Be True marked its 111th anniversary by supporting the charity show Ramp for Champs organised by Smile Foundation at the JW Marriott Sahar in Mumbai. Aimed at raising awareness and resources towards the education of the less privileged, especially girls, the event saw several Bollywood celebrities supporting the cause. Yami Gautam, Isha Koppikar, Archana Kochhar and Divya Kumar Khosla walked the ramp wearing limited edition jewellery from Ghanasingh's recently launched Birds of Paradise collection. Krishnaa and Gautam Ghanasingh of Ghanasingh Be True also walked the ramp in support of the foundation.

The fine jewellery brand also hosted a Day of Indulgence with an exclusive afternoon tea party and a day spa to pamper its esteemed clientele on August 24. Friends and clients including Sangeeta Assomull, Nisha Jamwal, Sangeeta Singh, Shalini Sharma, Ayesha Patel, Maheka Mirpuri, Lakshmi Subramaniam, Amy Billimoria, Radhika Seksaria and Dimple Nahar were seen enjoying themselves.

