A'Star Jewellery's new line of on-trend lariat neck pieces reflects the wearer's individuality and draws attention to her style quotient. The ornamental bolo clasp at the centre, encrusted with round and baguette diamonds, doubles up as a pendant. The bolo clasp allows the wearer flexibility to adjust the length of the chain to accentuate various neckline styles. The diamond studded motifs interspersed on the chain and dangling from the ends amp up the charm and glitter of the neck piece. Delicate yet classy, the versatile designs available in 18kt white, yellow and pink gold add a sophisticated edge to any outfit, making a subtle yet striking statement.
