AStar Jewellery presents "Minimalist Art", a collection which is reminiscent of the 1920s Art Deco jewellery with its bold geometric shapes and rich colours.

The styling has been adapted keeping in mind the modern-day outlook of the younger generation and their preference for more delicate jewellery suited for daily wear. The geometric styling is less ornate with the use of softer colour tones of cream and black enamel, and delicate overlay of diamonds and coloured gemstones. The more popular rose gold replaces the cool-toned white metal used in the Art Deco era.

Crafted in 18kt pink and yellow gold, these pendants and earrings allow you to incorporate a vintage vibe into your modern wardrobe.
