High Drama

The versatile 22-karat bridal lines by renowned gold jewellery designer Anand Shah makes a lifestyle statement. The designer's collections use various elements such as glass, rose wood, pearls, uncut diamonds, enamel to complement baroque gold motifs that fuse contemporary and traditional aesthetics effortlessly. Shah employs ancient jewellery making crafts such as filigree, beadwork, varied textures, and fretwork to replicate nature's wonders in the yellow metal. These beauties are absolute showstoppers!

Bond of Love

Inspired by the intricacies of relationships, the collection by A*Star Jewellery expresses the sentiment that important connections should be cherished and held on to forever. The design style uses delicate links embellished with subtle cream enamel to symbolise the strong yet elusive bond of love. The links are featured in various shapes to portray the infinite forms of affection. A scalloped rim in gold adds pizzazz to the link design. Available in two shades of gold - yellow and pink, in 9-karat to 18-karat, the diamond-encrusted collection offers an eclectic selection of pendant sets, necklace sets and oval bracelets. The designs are a balance of contemporary and fusion styles, offering the wearer the choice to accessorise her everyday ensemble according to her individual style or mood.

Limitless Beauty

In all their myriad forms, the ubiquitous flower embodies true beauty that has no parallels. Inspired by this vibrant floral world of elegant shapes and organic curves, the collection by A*Star Jewellery explores motifs that range from simple to sophisticated, using the 3D form to add versatility. Crafted in yellow gold ranging from 9-karat to 18-karat, the jewels are enticingly studded with diamonds to add vibrancy to every layer and petal. A dazzling centre with illusion diamond setting adds volume and dimension. Connect to nature with these flower-patterned rings, pendant sets, and oval bracelets. No matter the season, these enchanting flowers bloom all year long.

For The Love Of Emeralds

Rosentiques unveils a collection that pays tribute to the evergreen gemstone, the emerald. The focus this time is on adorning the ears - chandeliers with emerald posts, doubledrop emerald earrings lined with a curve of fancy-shaped diamonds, shoulder dusters draped with emeralds and diamonds. Flamboyant and flattering, these earrings make for perfect winter style.
